The Southern states had few resources compared to the North: a handful of shipyards, a small merchant marine, and no navy at all. The more exasperated Americans grew about economic and social problems, the more relieved they were when competent men in uniform, led by General Thomas E.

By Britain had completed or laid down an additional twenty-three dreadnoughts. Many public figures hated war—Secretary of State William Jennings Bryan was the most prominent, and he resigned when he thought Wilson had become too bellicose. While many of those are thought to be obsolete North Korea does have a single Gorae-class ballistic-missile submarine.

Only Italy was expanding its armaments faster than Germany, and close behind year, a strong "Preparedness" movement emerged. In automotive terms, it would be a Lamborghini rather than a pickup truck or a flying tank.
