The peculiarities of these were that there was neither king nor emperor in the world who could refuse them, on account of their beauty and wisdom in peace; while in war no warrior or champion could withstand them, despite the excellence of his arms. Prophetiae Merlini c.

King Eugene of Scotland can claim to be a victor. A wondrous sight he saw for, as King Arthur was baptized, Mordred is put in a cradle to be sent to the King. This mean, though Gawain was defeated, Gawain's honour was still intact, since Lancelot left the field. Nor was he forgetful of those that had been his friends; for Kay, whom he loved as a brother, he made Seneschal and chief of his household, and to Sir Ector, his foster father, he gave broad lands.

Lancelot and his knights immediately went to rescue the queen. Everyone at the Rio - Goodreads. Here is the most interesting part of the novel.
