Most Reincarnation: Guidance for the 21st Century who have been with my blogs for any length of time will remember Bill Pulliam, who was a commenter on The Archdruid Report from way back and commented here and on The Well of Galabes from their inception. I also wonder if my daughter now was my daughter then because, even though she looked a little different and must have been the second or third child in the family instead of the oldest, it seemed to me that that was still. I have no defensive measure so far.

Hatred increases the delusion of separateness from other people, and from God. By the early s, use of the term "New Age" was increasingly common within the cultic milieu. I did come across many references to Dr. JMG That is a shock about Bil. It expanded and grew largely in the s and s, in particular within the United States. I truly appreciated the depth of insight in both science and spirit that he always brought to his comments.
