21 Reasons Why I'm Still Not Married | Thought Catalog

I understand the good intentions behind asking, "How in the world are you not married yet?" You're trying to be flattering, telling me I'm a catch.

Well, no. But what one of you probably would say before long is, "Are you married?" It's seen as the most natural of ice-breakers, as if it's the first.

I hate to admit it, but I am both sad and embarrassed not to be married by now. The sting is particularly painful, as it seems every week, friends.

Tracy McMillan wrote on Huffington Post why she thinks you're not married; Her reasons touched a nerve for many, including CNN's unmarried.
