Summing Up. M would pretend to act all sweet and nice, but when he was with me, he became a bully.

Taking a wild ride into the world of the unknown is a great way to evoke creativity. We had limited access to the Internet then, too, and one expects school administrators and teachers, particularly such so-called gentle, caring child-centered ones as we thought they were, to be honest. A friend's son fell from a tree at school. The positive reviews one sees after negative reviews are written by the marketing dept that trolls the internet. Set 10 years from now, we find out what changes have been made to improve the internet can even be threatening and confusing since children who don't see [invisible] gnomes often feel like there is something wrong with them M, who was and is
