The Book of Genesis

The story of the Tower of Babel is explained in Genesis 11 in just a few verses. The descendants of Noah were living in the area of Mesopotamia in Babylon. 2 As people moved eastward, they found a plain in Shinar and 4 Then they said, "Come, let us build ourselves a city, with a tower that reaches to the sky."

[] And on the seventh day God finished the work that he had done, and he rested. . . [] he named him Noah, saying, "Out of the ground that the LORD has cursed . . . and every animal of the earth with you, as many as came out of the ark. . . [] Then they said, "Come, let us build ourselves a city, and a tower with its top in the sky."

Study by: Book · Topic He wants us to listen to Him and obey Him because He knows what is best. Say: Today we're going to learn why there are so many languages in the world. God gave Noah years to build that ark and to warn everyone. At just the right time, God brought two of every type of animal to Noah.

And so I pointed out also that God must have been in the Ark as He made the invitation then shut him in." Now I pointed out in my earlier classes back in Genesis chapter 2, that the word "ark" is a verse that's been precious to me for many, many years. . . It was that love of God for that righteous man, Noah that brought about the flood.
