I truly thought it was bad. I mean, the thing with the footballer I have not read anything from Tina prior to this book but am very keen to see more from this talented author. Emily's new life as Catherine in London means she will have to get a job to survive. I received an advance copy of this novel from the publisher. Trailers and Videos. Catherine tells him he's a good man. Bailey notices Catherine's flirting. It is these twists and turns that make it fine, but be prepared to sit through Ikea trips, unrealistic career progressions and multiple storylines that don't seem to matter, in order to get to "the secret".
