The Roman perspective on the Christ story was primarily interesting for its take on Pontius Pilate's character and motivations. Standing discovers how to withstand the torture by entering The Jacket (Star-Rover) kind of trance state, in which he walks among the stars and experiences portions of past lives. You will find no bigger The Jacket (Star-Rover) of Jack London than me but even though this is very different than anything else he has written I hold it in just as high regard and consider it a classic.
